ABC Blocks

ABC Blocks - Wood (Watch video)

An ALL-Time Kid Show Classic is BACK Show three wood blocks labeled A, B & C, along with a square tube. Block A is removed and put inside a hat. The remaining two blocks are covered with the tube. Ask the kids "Now where is Block A?" Of course they say "In the Hat." They are correct (this time)! You lift the tube showing the position of Blocks B & C. Block A is placed on top of B & C, then covered with the Tube. You ask "Where is Block B? Whatever they say is WRONG! You lift the Tube and Block B has VANISHED! ## Acrobatic Silks

All Time Audience Pleaser!

Show a wooden pole with 3 silks hanging down, 2 silks are the same color.

The single odd silk is the acrobat, it can jump from end to end.

You offer to prove the acrobatic silk really does jump!

Pass the Pole behind your back, the odd color silk jumped from one side to the other. You repeat this a 2nd time.
The odd silk has jumped back to it's original position!

The kids go crazy yelling, they think you're just turning the pole around!

Its not magic!

This time the odd color silk jumps to the center of the pole.

Great fun!

NO Threads to worry about!

The wooden rod measures 12" in length and each silk is a 12" diamond shaped silk

ADAIR'S CROWN JEWEL - Stage Size

An excellent routine for children's entertainers, conceived by Ian Adair, the props for this comprise of a cut out crown with a large jewel, and a safe.

The crown is at first covered with a cloth or opaque silk. The performer states that the Queen owns a very valuable crown and in it's center is a priceless jewel. He further states that when the Queen is not wearing her crown she asks for the priceless jewel to be removed and placed inside the special security safe. He opens, first the first door ... it's not there. He opens the second door and points as if it is there, but it isn't. The priceless jewel has gone missing. Then he uncovers the crown to show that the jewel is there, set in the center of the crown. He removes the jewel, pokes his fingers through the big gap and recovers the crown. He places the jewel inside one of the compartments of the two-doored case (safe !) closing the door. Here the usual tipping from one side to the other takes place ... ( ala the Die Box) the jewel has gone. Perhaps someone has stolen it. Each door, one at a time being opened for the fun, then both ... It Has Gone! Where can it be ?

He rushes over to the silk covered crown, whips the silk off ... but it is not there. He covers it again, , gets the children to shout out the magic words etc. and yes ... when revealed, its back in position, set in the center of the crown. (It is not necessary to cover it, you can have the Jewel re-appear visibly if you prefer.)

We have produced the props in durable wood, painted and screened in bright colors, to bring you a quality model of a novel and new routine which children's performers will love. This is a larger stage size model of our Crown Jewel advertised earlier. The Crown is approx 16" long, and stands 8" high.

The Jewel is a large 3.5" diameter. The folding base is 12" long and 7" wide.

The safe measures 9" long, 2" thick, and 4.5" high.

These are two complete different effects - The Crown which works like Forgetful Freddie, (you can eliminate the safe and vanish the jewel in a change bag if you prefer), and the safe (like the die box, which you could use with a Jumbo Coin as a different trick). Together they combine into a perfect routine.

Supplied complete with all required props, and instructions.

Back-Stage

A Classic Stage Favorite for years!

The effect is simple, a Jumbo card vanishes & reappears. So you explain to the audience you'll teach this old magic trick.

Drop the Jumbo card between the two boards on the tray. Reverse the tray so that everybody can SEE that the card is resting in the ribbon loops under the tray.

Explain this is the way magicians are fooled by magicians.

Show the trick again, only this time the card actually disappears!

Of course, since you're a REAL magician, you also make the card reappear!

A very nice outfit for the stage performer!

Balloon Buster (watch video)

Close-Up or Surrounded Mechanical Masterpiece!

This apparatus consists of a cabinet 10 inches by 5 inches square, just bouncing with decoration. The cabinet is open at the top, front, and rear, and may even be examined.

A spectator inflates a balloon and it is placed in the cabinet. The performer smashes it with the block of wood, and claims a RABBIT WILL APPEAR IN THE BALLOON!! Nothing has apparently happened. He then reaches into the cabinet and brings out a flat rabbit. Try it again. This time as the balloon breaks, a live dove appears, as if it was INSIDE THE BALLOON. This may be a visible change and, don't forget, the cabinet was examined. Work it on any table or even in your hands.

Scores of effects are possible. Balloon to Silk --- Balloon to Candy or Glass of Liquid --- or anything else that is about the size of the cabinet. Operate everything close-up and surrounded. Entirely mechanical. No hanging bags. This method is a new idea!!

BEHIND BARS

A beautiful set of four pictures, one of a prisoner, the other three of empty jail cells, silk screened in four vivid colors on durable white cardboard stock measuring 9" x 14" is shown to the audience. A story is told how this prisoner was one of the hardest men to keep in jail.

One of the empty jail cells is placed aside, and a game is begun with the children to see if they can keep track of the prisoner. Although you have three cards left in your hand, no matter which card the audience selects as the "prisoner" card it will be of an empty jail cell. Even as the cards are eliminated one by one the audience will not be able to find the prisoner.

Finally the prisoner is shown to be secured behind bars on the first card that was removed even though the card was placed in a large envelope which remained in full sight of the audience.

There are many different lessons that can be taught to children with the theme that "CRIME DOESN'T PAY".

FORGETFUL RUDOLPH THE RED NOSED REINDEER

A model of an absentminded Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer is shown to the spectators and the magi talks about how Rudolph is very forgetful. He forgets where he put his Christmas list and how to get things ready for his famous Christmas Eve ride. He is so forgetful that he once forgot where he left his nose. As the magi says this he takes the nose from the body and vanishes it in A Christmas decorated devil's napkin that is provided with the effect. He then takes a red balloon, blows it up and places it where the nose was on the body.

Rudolph is very unhappy as the other reindeer call him names and make fun of him because of his balloon nose. Magi tells how Santa has a conversation with Forgetful Rudolph where he tells him how unhappy he is to have him "lost his nose". Santa gets a promise from Rudolph that he will bring all the good little girls and boys something extra and try not forget things anymore and he restores his nose with a few magic words. The balloon "magically" pops and Rudolph's nose is restored. This is a brilliant trick for children and grownups of all ages.

The effect is beautifully made and is about 15" high and 16" wide. It uses wind nuts and bolts to be easily taken apart and folded flat. It is silk screened in 5 colors. The Christmas devils napkin can be used for other effects.

Hat's Incredible (mu)

Is it a toilet plunger, a vase, a Beanie cap, or a Safari Hat? Isn't Hat Incredible! Its an updated comical blend of TroubleWit and Chapeaugraphy that is destined to become an instant kid show classic. It's a must if you work for children.

Bring a child up to help and say, "We need a special hat and a magic wand". From then on its NON-STOP laughter. Magician brings out what appears to be a toilet plunger and places it on the kid's head. Pulling off the handle causes the plunger to change into a flower vase and the magician is left holding a MAGIC WAND.

Claiming the vase is the hat, it is placed on the child's head and visibly becomes a comical BEANIE STYLE CAP. Oops the magic isn't working. Must be because the hat is upside down. Magician flips the hat and suddenly it changes into a comical SAFARI HAT. Now the magic works.

This has been a proven winner in Devin's kid shows for the last 7 years and is finally being released to magic world after many requests. This is a routine your audiences will not have seen before.

4 MAGICAL Changes. Comes complete with Hat Incredible, wand, and routines for both children and adults.

Haunted Castle (watch video)

This is a wonderful routine using friendly Ghosts &nbsp;where the Magician does not believe that there are any ghosts in the castle.....but the children see them and they run between the castles and peep over the top of the towers and at one time actually flies.....YES FLIES..... Into the air .....when you catch it it wriggles in yor hands.....but the haunted castle still has&nbsp;a ghost&nbsp;until eventually&nbsp;it &nbsp;disappears and is found on your back .....no pins it is attached by a small magnet.

THE MOVEMENT OF THE GHOST WORKS ON A PULL METHOD SO WHEN YOUR &nbsp;HAND AND BODY GO ONE WAY THE GHOST MOVES IN THE OPPOSITE DIRECTION. IT IS A VERY SIMPLE METHOD AND THERE ARE NO MECHANICS TO GO WRONG. THE CASTLE IS DESIGNED TO STAND ON A TABLE AND NOT TO BE HELD.....SO YOU STAND OR SIT BEHIND IT AND IT IS THEREFORE PERFECTLY NATURAL TO HAVE YOUR HANDS BEHIND WORKING IT.

The castle at its widest point measures 24 inches and 11.5 inches high.It is big enough to be seen&nbsp;by all. It is made in wood.

Effect: A group of children that you did a show for have made you a unique and special gift as a thank you. Wonderful though this is, it's not a lot of use for performing with. So using your special powers you set about changing one card, then the whole deck into a more familiar and useful design. With the brand new deck you demonstrate your skills with a little mind reading. However, racked with guilt at ruining the young ones' beautiful present you set about returning it to its former, if unconventional, glory Each Kids Kards deck comes complete and ready to work. As you can see from the images, the artwork on the "kid" cards is charming - both the faces and backs have been custom printed and are perfectly in tune with the patter story of children designing a deck of cards. The trick is nearly self-working, the deck does all the work for you.

Magic Butterfly Book (watch video)

\\"Yes, the Butterfly Book absolutely floors the kids (and the adults) every time I use it ! It is one of the strongest presentations in my show. I use sound effects and music with the routine, and it goes over great. \\"

Mark&nbsp;Petey Naples Florida USA

By Derek Rutt

The magic Butterfly Book is a wonderful book for all your children's shows. You tell your audience that this is a book about butterflies that can do magic. So you open the book to read .but as you open it A HUGE GREEN CATERPILLAR WE MEAN HUGE! Comes out from the center of the book AND LOOKS AT YOUR HELPER The helper will back away and the children will SCREAM! SO YOU SHUT THE BOOK . As you shut the book the furry Animal goes down back into the book. "What is the matter " you say there is nothing there. So now you open the book again and once again the HUGE GREEN CATERPILLAR comes out another big SCREAM! So you close the book again What is it you say! As you open the book again you look into the book AAAAAHHHH! Now it is your turn to scream! As you see the green thing for the first time You close the book quickly SOME MAGIC open it again and this time &nbsp;up POPS a large butterfly. &nbsp;!

Mrs. Brown's Kooky Kookie

A great trick with a gigantic chocolate chip cookie, what could be better!? The trick is classic. Show your audience a really big cookie - about ten inches in diameter. But there's only one chocolate chip on the cookie! Turn the cookie over and there are four chips. Better. Turn it over again and there are now three chips. Once more and there are six chips. Wait a second, this sounds familiar! You offer to show how it's done. You cover this one and uncover that one and it looks like one chip or three chips or four chips or six chips. But, in the end, you truly baffle them, because there are really three chips on one side and six chips on the other. And, when you turn it over one last time there are eight chips!! Made of metal, but it looks just like a cookie. The chips are giant and look so real. It takes up no room in your case, and plays bigger than big! You will love this one. Similar idea to the Spot Card or What's Next tricks

NO WAY SPIDER WEB

This trick is an excellent way to communicate a strong message whether it is gospel, "Say no to drugs", avoiding peer pressure or dangerous situations. This will become a favorite effect of yours. The idea came from combining two great effects. The spider came from Rice's Encyclopedia of Silks, Vol. 1, put together with the ease of the familiar cargo net vanish. This trick is very versatile for a number of routines. A few examples are included with the effect.

A large spider is silk screened on a cloth web. Five silks are seen dangling tight in the clutches of the spider. One by one the silks are removed and placed in a rolled newspaper. The newspaper is then unrolled, the silks have vanished. All silks are now seen back in place in the grapple of the evil spider.

&nbsp;&nbsp;&nbsp;Comes complete with all the silks you need. Beautifully silk-screened spider.&nbsp;&nbsp;&nbsp;Large enough to be seen in&nbsp;&nbsp;&nbsp;large auditoriums. A large effect for a low price.

NOSE KNOWS

A magician or clown shows four cards, each with a picture of a clown's face. All the pictures are similar except for the noses, which is different colors. The packet of cards are mixed which proves no pre-arrangement. A card is selected and the magician's back is turned so that he can mentally picture the color of the clown's nose.

After several wrong guesses, accompanied by comical by-play, the performer reluctantly gives up. As he turns toward the audience the selected correct color nose is seen to be firmly on the magician's face.

Peanut Butter and Jelly Trick (watch video)

The Trick That Kids Instinctively Love...And With Good Reason!

The Build Up The magician displays a large jar of Peter Pan Peanut Butter on one side of the stage (or living room) and a jar of jelly on the other side. He covers both jars, and after the magic words, he explains that the peanut butter and jelly have changed places! The kids are skeptical, but they're ready to believe.

The Let Down Before he lifts the covers to verify his claim, he offers to repeat the miracle, "magically" returning the jars to where they first started. The kids are even less convinced than before, in fact they're ready to boo him off the stage.

The Make Good Negotiating for one last chance to prove himself, a child from the audience is invited up to examine two pieces of real bread, which are placed into an ordinary brown paper bag. The child is asked to hold the bag and stand precisely between the two jars. This time, at the magician's command, the Peanut Butter and Jelly change places! He lifts the covers and shows that the change has happened!

The Finale As further proof of the invisible flight across the stage, the Peanut Butter and Jelly left some evidence behind! The child reaches into the bag to remove the bread and instead finds a complete Peanut Butter and Jelly Sandwich, which is his or hers to keep!

Peppermint Stick Nesting Wands by Ickle Pickle

After performing any of his favorite effects, the performer offers a peppermint magic wand to his assisting spectator. The child takes the wand, but to everyone's surprise, the performer still has a wand in his hand! He asks the child to put the first wand under his arm and take the second wand-again the performer still has a wand in his hand!

The performer places this wand under his assistant's chin and the effect is again repeated until his helper can barely hold them all-they're under his chin, under his arms and between his legs!
Five wands in all.

Very easy to perform

Great reactions from children and adults

PIZZA OVEN TRICK

A young assistant is called up from the audience to help you keep an eye on your pizza while it bakes. You tell the audience that in the pizza shop that you used to work in the pizzas always disappeared. To make the trick more fun you allow your helper to dress up in a chef's hat and apron. A seven-inch, delicious pizza is shown to the audience and your helper. The pizza oven, which has two doors, is also shown to everyone. Open the door on the right and ask your helper to put the tasty pizza in the oven. The baking process begins with a few magic words. (If you're working in Pizza Hut then the magic words will be "I love Pizza Hut." That is sure to get you jobs with the manager.) As you prepare to open the door and check on the pizza, the oven is tipped to the side and the pizza rolls across. The kids can obviously see the pizza roll by, as there is an open space between the two oven doors. The kids will scream and insist that you open the other door. They shout "It's on the other side!" You tip the oven the other way to roll the pizza back to the first oven before you open the door of the second oven. They shout "It's on the other side!" You tip the oven the other way and the pizza rolls back the other way again. Then you open the first oven door once again. The kids scream again.

This goes on and on as the kids scream louder and louder. You finally open both oven doors at once. The pizza is really gone! You and your helper search everywhere for the pizza only to find it hanging right on his back!

Originally this trick was made similar to the firecracker trick where the firecracker hangs on the kid's back with a sharp pin. Because of the specially constructed apron, the specially constructed pizza sticks with the Velcro. The trick is very large and holds a 7" pizza. It is made from fine wood and everything is silk-screened. It comes in a vinyl carrying case. It is truly made in a deluxe fashion. You will get a full five minutes of non-stop screaming and laughter from the children.

Run Rabbit Run - India

Here's a smaller and less expensive version of Run Rabbit Run. 16 inches long and 7 inches tall. If you want a big effect in a small package this is for you. Made of wood.

Show 2 rabbit houses connected by a brick wall. Each house has a front and back door. A wood cut-out of a small rabbit is placed in one house. The darn Rabbit runs to the other house!

The kids see him run back & forth, yelling & screaming each time! You tell 'Thumper' (the Rabbit) to 'Stay'.

'Thumper' peeks out the side and runs to the other house. So you open both doors front & back, 'Thumper' has Vanished! The kids are going crazy at this point! You turn around looking for 'thumper' and he is hanging on your back.

Run Rabbit Run-MAK (1 left, no longer made)

Run Rabbit Run is the classic 'sucker' effect for any children's show. Magician shows two rabbit hutches connected by a brick wall. The hutches have two doors in front and two in the rear. A wooden panel cut out to look like a 'jack rabbit' is placed in one hutch. Performer tells the audience, "If you see him run over to the other house - don't tell me". The rabbit runs and they 'tell', at full volume. The audience always see him run, but the magician never does. Performer is always behind in the 'rabbit catching' and 'door opening'. When you have just about outsmarted this wooden 'thumper', he peeks out the side of a hutch and then zooms across to the other side. You never can catch him! He's neither 'hare nor there'. The children will go 'bananas'! Finally you open all four doors and Mr. Bunny vanishes completely!! He's found hiding in your pocket, hanging on your coat, or anywhere else you choose. Apparatus is 23" long, 9" high, and the rabbits are 6 1/2" tall. Made entirely of wood, high-gloss lacquered in brilliant colors and rests on a green carpeted base. First class quality. Your spectator will always remember you performing Run Rabbit Run!!!

STRAT-O-SPHERE (MAK)

The all Time King of Classic's

A World Renowned Routine Apparatus

Mystery, Audience Participation, Comedy, and MAGIC!

The quality of Mak Magic's Strat-O-Sphere is unsurpassed, maybe never to be equaled. We provide a tall clear Plastic tube with metallic ends, which rests in a wooden base, a highly decorated Metal Tube and a Wooden Box, and three differently colored balls, each one 3 inches in diameter.

A Red

a Yellow

& a Green ball that all match the metal Tube color design!

This color match is for patter possibilities.

Although there is only enough room in the tube for the three balls, one on top of the other, the ball placed on top of the three magically appears on the bottom or in the center of the stack of three. The red one seems to be the ball that likes to do the wandering.

Finally, the magician takes this roaming ball and places it in the wooden box.

He grasps the box by the ends of the doors and flips it open. The ball has vanished!

The audience sees completely thru the box. The ball reappears in the plastic tube between the other two.

Manufactured with Class by Mak Magic.

WRONG WAY by VERNET

The magician displays a large traffic sign with a big arrow on each side and explains the importance of traffic going the proper direction. The arrow on one side is shown to be pointing left and the arrow on the other side points to the right. Now the comedy begins-the magician continues to show both sides of the sign, but now the arrows change directions and end up pointing the same way, up and down!

Finally, the magician explains, "...and we all know what happens when you don't pay attention to the traffic signals..." and with that the sign drops open to show a 44" tall police officer with a cut out for the magician's face!

Great for comedy with a wonderful surprise climax, Wrong Way is a must for any magician working with youngsters.

Comes complete with the special printed traffic sign.
